Comments on the 5th Annual Board Assembly

“ If one believes that preparation and networking are foundational to getting on corporate boards, then this event is one of the few “must attends” of the year.”

— Jan Berger, CEO of Health Intelligence Partners

“ This year’s Board Assembly was a well-organized event structured in a business-like way around a series of small group meet-and-greet sessions which combined 90-second introductions with short advice and input discussions. The very positive result was that at the end of the three hours, each of us knew something about, and was able to recognize and engage, with the majority of the other attendees.”

— Stewart Landefeld, Partner at Perkins Cole LLP

“ Terrific networking. Very much like the “speed dating” format. Unique versus the traditional cocktail network stuff.”

— Craig Lemasters, CEO of Global Executive Group
