“I participated in the last two annual Board Assembly events as well as two other Women in the Boardroom events in the past year. I know of no other organization whose membership is made up of as many motivated, high-caliber executives, that have desire and potential to add significant value to corporate boards. WIB and its members are definitely a force to be reckoned with.”

- Orville G. Aarons, President of Catskill Hudson Bank

“Women in the Boardroom is an organization whose time has come. Its members are experienced, ambitious, committed and engaged.
